C Ocarina

David Erick Ramos

The score is written for C Ocarina in 4/4 time. It begins with a 3-measure rest, indicated by a '3' above the staff and a fermata. A repeat sign with a first ending bracket follows. The piece consists of eight staves of music, each with corresponding ocarina fingering diagrams below the notes. The first ending is marked '1.' and the second ending is marked '2.'. The score concludes with the instruction 'To Coda', a 2-measure rest, and 'D.S. al Coda'.

C Ocarina

The image displays a musical score for a C Ocarina, consisting of eight staves of music. Each staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The first staff includes a common time signature (C) and a triplet of eighth notes. The music is written in a simple, melodic style. Below each staff, there are fingering diagrams for the ocarina, which are small icons of the instrument with black dots indicating which finger holes should be covered for each note. The diagrams are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with each diagram corresponding to a specific note in the piece. The fingering diagrams show various combinations of finger holes covered, such as the thumb hole, index hole, middle hole, ring hole, and little hole, as well as the side holes. The score is presented in a clear, black-and-white format, suitable for a music book or instructional manual.

C Ocarina

This page contains ten staves of musical notation for a C Ocarina. Each staff consists of a musical staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a corresponding fingering diagram below it. The fingering diagrams are ocarina-shaped icons with circles representing finger holes, some of which are filled with black dots to indicate which fingers should be pressed. The music includes various note values such as quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests and bar lines. The diagrams show the specific fingerings for each note, including combinations for the thumb, index, middle, ring, and little fingers, as well as the left and right index fingers.
